

CITY OF PROSSER

Looking for a taste of the good life? Look no farther than Prosser. The small town with the big following of wine enthusiasts has become one of the Yakima Valley's premier destinations. Situated in the lush agricultural landscape are more than 28 wineries, family-owned farms and orchards, a charming historic downtown and a thriving theater company.

Prosser offers a truly convenient and distinctive wine-tasting experience. Within just a few square miles, you can taste every varietal produced in Washington, from Cabernet Franc to Zinfandel and all of the blends in between.

Some wineries offer petite tasting rooms, while others beckon with spacious patios or picnic areas. Many serve delicious meals or takeout appetizers to enjoy with your wine.

Recent efforts have been made to revitalize Prosser's timeless downtown, and the area is enjoying a newfound vibrancy. Families walk their dogs down shady, tree-lined sidewalks and contemporary restaurants welcome residents and visitors alike. Prosser is also home to numerous parks, a swimming pool, a skate park, a roller rink and a historic museum.

Like the rest of the Yakima Valley, Prosser enjoys more than 300 days of sunshine every year, so just about any time is a good time to visit. But you may want to plan your trip to coincide with one of the community's festive celebrations. In June, put on your kilt for the Scottish Fest and Highland Games. July offers art
